

FORTY FIVE HOUSE RULES

- Racism, misogynistic or homophobic behaviour will not be tolerated.
- Entrance can be denied when lack of respect is shown to fellow visitors, employees or to the building.
- Using and/or dealing soft or hard drugs is prohibited.
- Smoking is not allowed within the buildings of Forty Five.
- Every object that can be used as a weapon is strongly prohibited. Purses, backpacks and other bags will be checked on entering the premises.
- Drinks and snacks that weren't purchased in Forty Five are prohibited.
- Forty Five is not liable for any loss of clothing or other possessions of its visitors.
- Please respect our neighbours night's rest and keep it down outside.
- The minimum age to attend parties is 16. An exception can be made when parties are being organised by secondary schools or youth organisations. Always bring your ID to Forty Five to verify your age.
- Posters can only be put on the poster wall on the left-hand side of the bar or on the outside gates.
- Flyers can only be put in the leaflet rack on the left-hand side of the bar. Flyers are not to be distributed to visitors on entering or leaving the building. Distributing flyers in the outside area of the building (e.g. behind windshield wipers) is also prohibited.
- Stickers cannot be put on any walls, floors, ceilings, doors, windows, mirrors, sanitary ware or other furniture in Forty Five.

Security on the premises is carried out by RD Security bvba. RD Security bvba is insured against any physical or material damage caused by security guards. Victims can address themselves directly to Generali Belgium policy number GC041447.